Contents

Editorials

1. A themed journal issue on deprescribing
   N Barnett, B Jubraj

3. ‘Can I stop even one of these pills?’
   The development of a tool to make deprescribing easier
   A Cassels

5. Polypharmacy management programmes: the SIMPATHY Project
   A Mair, F Fernandez-Llimos, SIMPATHY Consortium

Commentary

7. Education around deprescribing: “spread and embed” the story so far
   A J Poots, B Jubraj, N L Barnett

Original articles

10. Deprescribing medicines in the acute setting to reduce the risk of falls
    V Marvin, E Ward, A J Poots, K Heard, A Rajagopalan, B Jubraj

16. Overview of current and future research and clinical directions for drug discontinuation: psychological, traditional and professional obstacles to deprescribing
    D Garfinkel, IGRIMUP

21. Deprescribing: is the law on your side?
    N Barnett, O Kelly

26. Impact of joint consultation by a clinical pharmacist and a clinical geriatrician to improve inappropriate prescribing for elderly patients
    J J W Ros, T J Koekkoek, A Kalf, P M L A van den Bemt, H J M Van Kan

30. Impact of medication review, within a shared decision-making framework, on deprescribing in people living in care homes
    W Baqir, J Hughes, T Jones, S Barrett, N Desai, R Copeland, D Campbell, A Lavery

Reviews

34. Managing medicines in multimorbidity: a patient perspective
    S Barnett-Cornack

37. Deprescribing: a primary care perspective
    P Duncan, M Duerden, R A Payne

43. Challenges of deprescribing in the multimorbid patient
    S Collman, C Raue Hansen, S Byrne, D O'Mahony, P Kearney, L Sahm

47. Deprescribing in older adults: a new concept for nurses in administering medicines and as prescribers of medicine
    C Naughton, N Hayes

51. Review of structured guides for deprescribing
    I Scott, K Anderson, C Freeman

Case reports

58. Deprescribing and managing polypharmacy in frail older people: a patient-centred approach in the real world
    L Oboh, M S Qadir

63. Deprescribing of psychotropic medication in a 30-year-old man with learning disability
    D Adams, I Sawhney

News

65. Organisations and individuals invited to register for common training framework consultation
    R Price

66. European commission opens consultation on EU health technology assessment co-operation
    R Price

PostScript

69. Letters