

Appendix 1. Questions and responses from the delegates.

Country (Number of delegates if not 2)	Are medication reconciliations currently being performed by pharmacists in your country? a. Yes, implemented as standard practice in all/most hospitals for all/most patients b. Yes, implemented in some hospitals for some patients c. Yes, but in a small scale/project stage d. No, not that I am aware of e. No, but it is done routinely by other profession	For settings where medication reconciliation is currently being performed by pharmacists – do you have a systematic approach in place for training new staff? a. Yes b. No c. Don't know d. Does not apply since it is not being performed in our setting/country	Do schools of pharmacy (or other institutions) in your country offer courses where medication reconciliation is taught (including theoretical and practical work)? a. Yes b. No c. Don't know	Do you have prerequisite courses or training programs for pharmacists performing medication reconciliation in your setting/country? a. Yes b. No, any pharmacist can perform medication reconciliations c. Don't know
Austria	c	b	b	b
Belgium (1)	b	a	a	b
Bosnia and Herzegovina (1)	c	d	a	a
Bulgaria (1)	d	d	b	b
Croatia (3)	c	b	a	a
Czech Republic	c	b	a	b
Denmark	b	a	a	a
Estonia	c	b	b	b
Finland	c	b	b	b
France	b	b	a	a

Germany	b	a	b	b
Greece	c	d	b	b
Hungary	b	b	b	b
Iceland	b	d	c	b
Ireland	b	a	b	b
Italia (1)	b	a	a	b
Luxembourg (1)	c	b	b	b
Macedonia	d	d	c	c
Malta	c	b	b	b
Netherlands	b	a	b	b
Portugal	c	b	a	b
Romania (1)	d	b	b	b
Serbia	c	c	a	c
Slovakia	c	a	b	b
Slovenia (1)	b	c	a	b
Spain	b	a	a	a
Sweden	b	a	a	b
Switzerland	b	c	b	b
UK	a	a	a	b